There were twelve people present to enjoy a natter at our first meeting of the year.

A Breakfast Run was talked about and Brian W. told us that the Chequers at Barley, where we had a less than successful breakfast last year, is now under new management, and they are keen to cater for us. If any one thinks they know of anywhere else suitable, please ensure that they would provide fruit juice, cereals, full English or alternative, toast and tea or coffee. We need to decide on a date in April (except Easter Sunday on 20th) or possibly May 6th could be another option.

I mentioned recently that Balmoral Knitwear had closed, but I have been contacted by a lady called Elaine from a company called The Working Wardrobe. They have taken over the customer base and embroidery designs. They have a very good range of clothing on their website, "www.theworkingwardrobe.co.uk". and Elaine tells me that there is no minimum order and our members can order individually without going through me. The cost of embroidery is £4.25 per item.

I know that the Pageant at the end of May seems a long time away, but Eric will need to know how many passes will be required. I will start collecting names to pass on to him at the next meeting on 3rd March.

After the meeting Barb and I were musing about whether we need to hold an AGM. We felt it wasn't really necessary as we did not hold one last year however, if anyone feels strongly that we should hold one, please mention it at the March meeting. Obviously if anyone has other matters to be discussed, just bring the subject up in the normal manner.

You will be pleased to know that Mandy, at the Robin Hood, has now confirmed our booking of the Maid Marian Room for the rest of the year by email.
