November 2015

At the last club meeting who would have guessed that it was the beginning of November, as eighteen of us were there for a chat. There were two new faces; Stuart, who joined earlier this year, making his first visit in his XJS, and another new member, Neil, who has a Mk2.

Recently several members made their usual visit to Stoneleigh, which was busy as always.

A revived event was the Classic Car Show at Alexandra Palace, however those who attended found it rather disappointing, with most of the stands being dealerships. Even more strange was the fact that concessions were only available if you asked!

Keith & Bobbie went to Brighton on Sunday 1st to watch the veteran cars arrive at the end of the London to Brighton Run, but I gather that Bobbie preferred the beach after a while.

In the last Newsletter, Margot wrote about our visit to Coleshill where there was an open day showing how the last line of defense in WW2 was trained. Tony has heard that the day attracted around 2,000 visitors.

This is your last chance to book for the Christmas dinner at the Galley Hall on 5th December, so ring Barb as soon as possible. As usual we will be arriving at around 7.30 for the meal at 8.00 p.m.

For recent members, I can assure you that the Newsletters do have more in them when the season gets going.
