March 2023

Ten people were in attendance at our first meeting of the year, and it was good to get together again for a chat.

There are several dates for the diary that have already come in. The first of these is the Breakfast Run to the Woodman at Nuthampstead on April 30th. I have quite a few names already but there is still room for more. Let me know at the next meeting. The cost which includes a service charge is £16.50 per person.

The show at the Villa Scalabrini in Shenley is on Sunday 14th May, hopefully with better weather than last year. Booking is not required.

Next, and most important, is the Enfield Pageant of Motoring on Saturday 27th & Sunday 28th May. Eric will be getting our passes for us so, by next meeting, he will probably need to know who will be going, and on which days. George has booked 1:30 - 2:00pm on the Sunday for our cars to display in the arena.

As usual two consecutive days in June will see the Datchworth Village Fete on 10th and the Luton Festival of Transport on the 11th.

Usually the Hoddesdon and Kimbolton shows are on the same weekend, but this year Hoddesdon is on 1st July and the Kimbolton Fayre is on the 16th July. Many people will have already been contacted about Hoddesdon and also the Waltham Cross show on the 5th August.

I have booked a space for six cars at Kimbolton and I will find out later who is interested.

Don't forget that our next meeting on April 3rd is our AGM so, if any of you are desperate to take over from Doug, Barb, Roy or myself, or there are any matters you wish to raise, please let Doug know before the meeting.
