APRIL 2010

The next meeting will again fall on a Bank Holiday but we carry on as normal.

Although only twelve people were available for the breakfast run, it was very enjoyable. The weather was good and so was the breakfast. Don't forget though that suggestions for somewhere different for the October Run are needed if a change of venue is felt to be a good idea. We did ask Area 16 if any of them would like to join us but we had no reply.

On the same day the SS Register visited the De Havilland Museum near South Mimms (the same place that the club visited a few years ago). Some of our members joined them, either instead of going on the breakfast run or after it.

The weather was very kind for the weekend away, organised by the Whitewebbs Museum, and Audrey will give us some more details in the next newsletter. I hope that the gods are as kind for the forthcoming XK Weekend.

Don't forget to contact Eric (01707-875129) about the Enfield Pageant of Motoring, if you haven't done so already

If anyone still wants to book in advance for the Chiltern Hills Show at Aston Clinton which is £4, a big saving on the normal gate price of £10. The contacts are 01296-631666 or www.chilternhillsrally.org.uk Advance bookings need to be in by April 30th

I still have forms for the Luton Show on June 13th.

As Roy included in the last Newsletter, anyone wanting to find out about the London to Southend Run on 25th July, the website is www.sevcvc.com

As we had eighteen at the last meeting, in contrast to the six on Easter Monday, we were able to discuss people's opinions on the club Christmas Dinner. It had already been agreed that we needed to change back to the first Saturday in December, which is the 4th. Although Doug and I got a very favourable opinion of the Duke of York, the fact that they wouldn't take any bookings until the beginning of September put people off. It seems that it is unlikely that we would have to pay a surcharge for the room at the Salisbury Arms in Hertford so we have made a provisional booking there. The price last year was £25 per head. We will obviously have more details later, and deposits won't be needed till October. Hopefully, with the change of date and venue, we will get back to the numbers that we used to get. I know it's a long way ahead but it would be nice to get an idea of how many are likely to be interested, so e-mails, phone calls or even carrier pigeons to get people's views would be welcomed.
