March 2025

There were nine of us in attendance at the club meeting on Monday 3rd and, as Doug has not heard from anybody who is desperate to have an AGM, it was agreed that the club can manage without one.

Brian W was able to give us positive information about a Breakfast Run to the Chequers at Barley, where we went last year. The new owner is very obliging and he will do a Continental Breakfast for £10 per head or Full English, which I gather would include fruit juice and cereal for £15 per head. We now need to agree a date. As I mentioned in the correction that Roy sent out for me last month, April 6th & 27th are the possible Sundays. Would you kindly let me know the dates you prefer and Brian can book for the date that most people are available on.

Last year I'm sure several of you will remember the booking problems for the show at Hoddesdon, when they had decided to park the cars according to age (which we were not happy about). I have spoken to Hannah at Broxbourne Council who has sent out the booking forms and explained that the Jaguars wanted to be together round the War Memorial as usual. She was going to try and find out what was intended and get back to me. To date, I have heard nothing further, so will not be booking yet.

Keith W has reminded me about Area 33 Day at the RHS Gardens at Hyde Hall which is on July 6th this year, the same day as the Hoddesdon show. If anyone is interested, I would suggest that you contact Barb (01279-508374) as she usually books tickets for themselves and Keith.

I collected some names to pass on to Eric for Pageant tickets. If you don't get to club nights but wish to display your car on 24th/25th May, please contact Eric. As before the administration charge is £5 per car.

While on the subject of the Pageant, hopefully you will all remember that we will no longer be providing bacon rolls, tea, coffee, etc., which saves us a lot of work. As a result, the two little cookers that we used, are now redundant. I tried to contact our local scouts in case they wanted them for themselves, or to sell at their Jumble sale but I haven't heard from anybody. If you know of a good cause that could make use of them, they are currently languishing in our shed.

I'm sure lots of dates will be coming through as the weeks go by, one to mention is Classics at the Villa Scalabrini on Sunday 1st June. www.classicsatthevilla.com

Nothing to do with cars, but if anyone is interested there is Tulip Festival near Willows Farm, London Colney from 5th to 27th April. Check the following link for details: www.tulipfields.co.uk.
