November 2014

It has been good to see plenty of people at the recent meetings despite the season having come to an end. Needless to say i don't have very much to write about.

On 12th October a few of us went to the Bocket Arms for breakfast. It is a very reasonably priced breakfast with plenty of choices but a little disorganised. I think this was partly due to the girl I normally deal with, who seems to be in charge, being on holiday. We have decided to give it another try in the spring.

On the same day, other people went to Stoneleigh spares day which was very busy and apparently it took a long while to get in.

As a result of Doug and I missing the return Waverley Steamer trip we had not seen the Thames at night; however we recently had a coach trip to Greenwich and, as it was dark by the homeward journey, we saw Tower Bridge lit up. We shouldn't have come back that way but the coach driver had heard that the Blackwall tunnel was closed so we had rather a roundabout return journey.

Don't forget that our Christmas dinner is at the Galley Hall on December 13th. Please contact Barb as soon as you can if you want to join us.

The Enfield Festival of Light is on November 30th. entrants need to be at the Enfield Market square by 11am.

Dick was recently asked to chauffeur a 100 yr old lady to her birthday party in his MkV and subsequently received a very nice letter of thanks.

The Whitewebbs Museum had a very successful MG day recently with about a hundred cars from many areas.
